

Story Parts

Introduction:

Setting:

Characters:

Protagonist:

Antagonist:

Supporting characters:

Foil:

Rising Action:

Problem/Conflict:

Suspense:

Climax:

Crisis:

Decision:

Falling Action:

Problem-solving Actions:

Final Solution:

Conclusion:

Ending:

Message/Theme:

Story Grammar Diagram

PLOT

Climax

Crisis

Decision

Rising Action

- Problem
- Suspense

Falling Action

- Problem-Solving Actions
- Final Solution

Event N

Event 1

Event 6

Event 2

Event 5

Event 3

Event 4

Event 4

Event 3

Event 5

Event 2

Event 6

Event 1

Event N

Introduction

- Setting
- Characters

Conclusion

- Ending
- Message

Messages or Themes in Stories

- One person can make a difference.
- Each person has a purpose.
- Good always triumphs over evil.
- People who work together can overcome obstacles.
- People who use their brains can overcome obstacles.
- Don't ever give up; your next attempt could be the successful one.
- A person's identity (or destiny) is determined by his/her individual goals.
- Enjoy life in the present moment because we all die too soon.
- A child must go through a series of trials before maturing.
- People are out of place in nature and need technology to survive.
- People are destroying nature.
- Having everything sometimes results in having nothing.
- A person can create a good life for him/herself.
- A person has no control over his/her destiny; society has control.
- Paying attention to the little things can lead to big things.
- Love conquers all.