

STORY-PLANNING DIAGRAM

Name: John BrewerDate: Sept. 1, 2017

Sequence	P.O.V.	Tense
Time	3rd Person	Past

Topic

Title

Going against the rules to survive

Shooting Down a Monster

Characters

Protagonist:

Billy Robinson

Antagonist:

The zeppelin

Others:

Engineers

Setting

In the air above England

World War One

September 1916

Introductory Paragraph

1

Could not stop zeppelins

Sequence

Time

2

Zeppelins bombed cities

1

Zeppelin - a huge flying ship

3

Billy - young fighter pilot

4

He could not stop zeppelin

Message/
ThemeKeep trying until you succeed.

Problem/Conflict

Could not shoot down
air ships

Climax

Crisis

Down to last bullets

Decision

To create a new attack strategy

Ending

Zeppelin destroyed.

Rising-Action Paragraph

2

New kinds of bullets

Sequence

Time

4

Load ammo by hand

2

Burning shell failed

1

Made a shell to start a fire

3

A new exploding shell

Climax Paragraph

3

Germans - a major attack

Sequence

Time

2

Bombed
Hertfordshire

3

Billy took off first

4

First 2 runs failed

1

16 zeppelins head
for England

Falling-Action Paragraph

4

Forced to try new plan

Sequence

Time

5

Zeppelin caught fire

3

Fired at tail section

1

Old plan - shoot continuously back to front

2

Had one drum left

4

Fired incendiary bullets
into hole at rear

Concluding Paragraph

5

New plan changed
everything

Sequence

Linking

3

Billy became famous

4

2 more zeppelins
shot down

2

People visited wreck

1

Zep Sunday